RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, It has pleased the Great Head of the Church, to remove from the Church Militant, to the Church Triumphant, our esteemed brother, Joseph P. Watson, we, the West Washington Street Baptist church, offer the following resolutions, as testimony of the esteem, and affection, in which we held our brother. Resolved, 1st, That this Church feels sorely the bereavement sustained in the death of Brother Watson, who was ever faithful to every duty entailed upon him by the church, and was even—though young in years—much sought after for his sound advice and counsel.

2d, That not only in the Church proper, is Brother Watson's loss felt, but also in the B. Y. P. U., and Sunday school, will he be sadly missed, as he was actively identified with the work, in both of these branches, not only here but through the State at large.

3rd, That though this dispensation of providence is a shock to us, and we do sincerely mourn our brother, yet our hearts go out in tenderest sympathy to his sisters and those relatives to whom he was dear, commending them to look to Christ, "The Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief," for comfort and strength, in this, their hour of great trial and trouble.

4th, That while we cannot see now why this dear brother was called home in the full flower of his usefulness—yet "We shall know hereafter"—for our trust is stayed on Him, who doeth all things well.

5th, That a copy of these resolutions be spread—as a testimony of respect—upon the minutes of this church. That these resolutions be sent for publication to the Biblical Recorder, to Charity and Children, and our City daily papers.

Done by order, and in behalf, of the church in conference, this the 29th day of May, 1901.

HOWARD GARNER,
W. W. ROWE,
J. S. MOORE,
Committee.

To Leave Tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis will leave tomorrow for Canada to visit kinsfolk and friends. They will go direct from here to Toronto, and from there to Providence, Manitoba. It has been twenty-two years since Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left their native country and moved to North Carolina, and during that time they have never returned for a visit.

Widening Ashe Street

A force of hands are at work on Ashe street, widening that portion of it lying between West Washington and Market streets. This increase in width will make it one of the pretty residence streets of the city.

For Wife Beating.

John Truit, whose arrest some time days ago for wifebeating, was noticed in The Telegram, was tried this morning before Justice of the Peace Pritchett, and fined $5 and costs. The fine was paid.

TAKES BACK HIS RESIGNATION.

SENATOR MCLAURIN TAKES THIS ACTION TO-DAY.

Governor McSweeney is Officially Notified of the Fact.

By Wire to The Telegram.
Columbia, S. C., June 3.—Senator McLaurin today officially withdrew his letter of resignation from Governor McSweeney.

Washington, June 3.—Former Journal clerk Smith of the House of Representatives, and a noted parliamentarian, declares that the Governor of South Carolina had not the authority in law or precedent to decline to accept the resignations of Tillman and McLaurin.

STRIBERS ARE RETURNING.

So Says General Manager Gannon, of the Southern.

By Wire to The Telegram.
Washington, June 3.—General Manager Gannon, of the Southern Railway, this morning declared that many of the striking machinists had returned to work today, but declined to state how many and in what cities. New men are being hired where necessary.

The God's Punishment.

By Wire to The Telegram.
Rome, June 3.—Vatican circles, it is reported, holds that the female heir to the throne is the gods punishment on the government for their treatment of Papacy.

Actor Hern Dead.

New York, June 2.—James A. Herne, the actor, died at his home in this city this afternoon.

Mr. Herne was taken ill in Chicago while playing in "Sag Harbor," a play of his own composition. He came at once to his home, took to his bed and never arose. It had been supposed for some days that he was improving, but Saturday night there was a change for the worse, which resulted fatally. At his bedside when he passed away were Mrs. Herne, his three daughters and his five-year-old son.

Mr. Herne was born in Troy, N. Y., February 1, 1838. He had a beautiful home in this city and was accounted wealthy. The body will be cremated. It has not been determined when the funeral will be held.

Safe-Blowers Burn a Town.

Beaumont, Tex., June 2.—The little town of Jasper, county seat of Jasper county, was entirely wiped out this morning by fire. Seventeen houses, including every business house in the place, and a number of residences, were destroyed. The fire broke out about 3 o'clock, and in the absence of any fire department the town was at the mercy of the flames.

Previous to the fire the postoffice safe had been blown open and robbed. The safe of the county treasurer was also found to have been blown open and rifled of its contents. The conclusion of the people of Jasper is that the robbers blew open these safes and then set fire to the town to cover up their crime and create an excitement which would afford them an opportunity to escape. The loss is estimated at $100,000 by the fire, but it is not yet learned what the thieves secured from the safes.

His Honeymoon in the Tombs

New York, June 2.—John McCullough, the young Savannah stenographer, who was arrested Thursday, on the steamer City of Augusta, while on his honeymoon, was again remanded to the Tombs today to await the issuance of extradition papers. Assistant Deputy Sheriff T. J. Sweeney, of Savannah, who arrived in New York Saturday afternoon, told Magistrate Flammer that after visiting Albany, tomorrow, to obtain signatures to the extradition papers, he would return and start for Savannah with McCullough on Thursday.

McCullough's lawyer said that if there was any longer delay in arranging the departure, he would obtain a writ for McCullough's release. When asked for a statement, Mrs. McCullough said: "John is all right and I will stand by him forever. If he did anything wrong it was for me and I will be loyal to him."

THE SCENERY SOLD.

The Last Show Has Appeared in the Academy of Music—The Building to be Sold.

The scenery at the Academy of Music was all taken out this morning, and carried to Danville, Va., where it will be used on the stage at the Reservoir Park. It was purchased by the Danville Railway and Electric Company, who also own the opera house at the Park. They have engaged a vaudeville show, who will give performance there during the hot weather. Danville Park is pretty, well kept, and is patronized by many of her citizens.

The last performance has been given in the Academy of Music, and Manager McAdoo says that he is going to sell the building. The property on which the building is located, is very desirable and is an excellent location for a residence.

W.C.T.U CONVENTION.

Will Be Held This Week in Littleton.

The Nineteenth Annual Convention of North Carolina Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held at Littleton June 5-9. The opening session will be Wednesday at 8 p. m. Mrs. M. D. Ellis, a national worker, will be present; also Mrs. Mary C. Woody, evangelistic superintendent. Mrs. Mary E. Cartland, State president, will preside. Rev. J. E. Underwood is to preach the Annual sermon on Sunday. It is anticipated that the convention, this year, will be of unusual interest. A large delegation is expected. It is desired that every local W. C. T. U. be represented. Fraternal delegates from the ranks of the honorary members will be welcome.

Reduced rates will be given. A fare and a third will be the cost of round trip. Tickets will be on sale June 4, 5, 6—continuous passage, good till June 12.—The fare from Greensboro and return will be $6.40; from Charlotte $10.20; from Goldsboro $4.90; from Henderson $1.75.

HANDSOME RESIDENCES.

Three New Ones to be Built on North Elm Street—One of Them to Cost $10,000.

Three new buildings will shortly be erected on North Elm street. Dr. Albert Wilson will erect one, Mrs. Mabane, mother of Mr. W. G. Mabane, another, and Mr. J. C. Bishop, the third. Mr. Bishop's will be located on what is known as the Fisher property, adjoining the property of Mrs. Nancy Brown and Capt. J. W. Fry. He will build a handsome brick residence upon the lot. The residence will cost in the neighborhood of ten thousand dollars.

At West Market Yesterday.

Yesterday being the first Sunday in the month, no preaching service was held in West Market church, but instead the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered. At the night service a strong sermon was preached by the pastor, Dr. S. B. Turrentine. Good congregations attended both services. The music was especially good, the offertory in the morning being a solo by Mrs. C. W. Banner. At night the offertory was a quartette by Misses Lola Carraway and Nan Wood, and Messrs. R. M. Crawford and Will Hill.

Enters New Business.

Mr. J. D. Helms, who for several years has been connected with the L. Richardson Drug Company, and whose resignation was handed in some time ago, is representing a company who examine fire insurance policies, and if there is a flaw in them, so report to the holder of the policy, enabling him to have his policy made legally perfect, in order that it may be incontestable in case his property is destroyed by fire. Mr. Helms has in his territory North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.

Sprained His Ankle.

Dr. L. W. Crawford is confined to his home today, the result of stepping on a piece of plank yesterday while returning from church. The twist his foot received, sprained his ankle.

BOWIE REVEALS HIS IDENTITY.

HE IS NONE OTHER THAN ELIJAH THE PROPHET.

Comes to Earth for the Third Time as the Restorer of All Things, as Prophet, Priest and Ruler Over All Men.

Chicago, June 2.—I am Elijah, the prophet, who appeared first as Elijah himself, second as John the Baptist, and who now comes in as the restorer of all things. Elijah was a prophet, John was a preacher, but I combine in myself the attributes of prophet, priest and ruler over men. Gaze on me then; I say it fearlessly. Make the most of it, you wretches in ecclesiastical garb. I am he that is the living, physical and spiritual embodiment of Elijah and my coming to earth a third time has been prophesied by Malachi, by God Himself, by His son, Jesus, by Peter and three thousand years ago by Moses. All who believe me to be in very truth all of this will stand up.

And over 3,000 people rose to their feet and greeted the declaration with cheers and handclapping.

John Alexander Dowrie, true to his promises, made this statement from the platform of the auditorium tonight, in the presence of 5,000 people. It was the culmination of a frenzied speech, in which he denounced everybody and everything in Zion, cursed the Pope and the Roman Catholic church, spat literary at Masonry, the newspapers and bankers of Chicago, and raged and tore up and down the stage like a mad man.

"Understand well what I mean," he continued. "I will take no counsel in my methods of government. I have come to proclaim theocracy, pure and simple, the government of God, by God and for God, and I will never rest till all other forms of government have been driven from the earth."

"You talk about your democracy. Bah! Bah! I tell you democracy has been tried in the balance and has failed. The government of the people by the people and for the people is twaddle. I stand loyal to the flag and countenance no revolution, but I demand here and now that the name of God must be placed foremost in the constitution of the United States and the supreme authority of God over all things must be recognized."

"Listen to the first message of the prophet," he demanded. "You must pay your tithes and offerings into the storehouse of God. Accursed be ye of ye would seek to rob His house of its fulness by not obeying this, His will, sent through Elijah."

RETURNED HIS RINGS.

The Interesting Situation of a Young Man at Burlington.

Burlington Messenger.
She was standing in the waiting room at the depot one evening this week, listlessly gazing upon the open stretch of track that leads towards the sunset, when suddenly within her ken there appeared another young lady, walking rapidly toward the station. The face of the first lady mentioned flushed as the second party drew near, and it was noticed that the greeting was exceedingly frigid when the second young lady entered the waiting room. They evidently knew each other—in fact knew each other too well—and a young man, who later appeared upon the scene, knew the one entirely too well to please the other. And thus the trouble brewed. Lady No. 1, with features indicating firmness, and a determination to accomplish her purpose, quietly removed a ring from a finger of her left hand and tossed it toward the young man in her presence. Not a word was uttered, but one could read volumes in the countenances of the two. Lady No. 2 was quick to grasp the situation and likewise removed a ring from a corresponding finger of the left hand and returned it to the donor, who now stood aghast, nervously handling the rings. With a confiding glance the ladies left the young man in the waiting room, and repaired to a safe distance to compare notes. If any of our readers are confronted with a dilemma of this character, seek solace by reading Proverbs 20:19.

The Queen of the May has had a long rain.

How Heroes Are Made.

A pretty and pathetic story has been going the rounds of the papers, in which a colored workman on tin Indianapolis was pictured as giving up his life in order that a fellow-workman who was married might have his life spared to his wife and children. The story was told with a variety of pretty and dramatic details, and naturally called forth much praise of the humble hero.

The aftermath is told in this way by the New York Times:

"On Monday last we published a very interesting and pathetic story from Indianapolis about a negro who when steam was accidentally turned into the big boiler in which he and a companion were working, nobly gave the other man a chance to escape first and in consequence of the delay was himself fatally burned. The tale was one of the kind we are glad to publish, and as it came through the regular Associated Press channels, the possibility that it was false or inaccurate did not occur to us then. The next day, however, Mr. Joseph B. Gilder sent us a letter expressing his appreciation of the negro's heroism and inclosing a contribution to serve as the nucleus for a monument fund. His example was followed by several other generous readers of the Times. Thereupon the duty to investigate was borne in on us, and we investigated with the lamentable result of learning on indisputable Indianapolis authority, including the testimony of the man who was saved, that, except for the fact that an accident of the sort did occur the story was a 'yellow journal fake,' rashly accepted by the Associated Press agent, and that the monument scheme would have to be abandoned. When the steam was turned into the boiler the two men in it rushed for the manhole, each for himself, and had it not been for the desperate struggle which each made to get out first, both could easily have escaped in safety. There was no discussion as to the superior right to life possessed by a married man, no display of self-sacrifice—nothing in short, except new and needless proof that poor humanity, when confronted with by sudden and terrible peril, sometimes fails to demonstrate its higher possibilities. So yesterday we returned the contributions we had received to the donors, with sincere regrets that we had excited their emotions without cause.

No comment on this is necessary. Atlanta Constitution.

Shot a Young Man for Calling on His Daughter.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 2.—Owen Logan a stockman of Arkoe, Mo., was fatally shot while calling on Miss Jessie Walker, near Maryville, by the young woman's father, last night. Logan was paying attention to Miss Walker. The father objected and is said to have made frequent threats that he would kill Logan, if he did not cease his attentions. Logan was standing at the gate of the Walker premises talking to Miss Walker, when the father came suddenly upon them, and bringing a shot gun to his shoulder, discharged its contents into the young man's body. Logan is a nephew of Sheriff Collins, and immediately after the shooting he was removed to the home of the latter. Walker gave himself up and is in jail.

The Blood HEALTHY OR DISEASED

When there is a natural and healthy circulation of the blood, the entire quantity, estimated at one-eighth the weight of the body, passes through the heart every five minutes. This rapid flow of the blood through the system prevents the entrance of disease germs and impurities of every description. It filters out all that is not necessary or good for the growth and development of the body and nourishing and strengthening the muscles, tissues, nerves and bones. But, unfortunately, few persons can rightly claim an absolutely pure blood supply and perfect and unpolluted circulation, and in consequence are exposed to innumerable diseases. Contagious Blood Poison, the greatest enemy to mankind, enters the system through the blood, and Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetters—in fact the majority of human ailments—are caused by poisons or humors that are engendered and fostered in a sluggish and impoverished blood.

The Blood is the Source of All Strength sores, chronic ulcers and rheumatic pains are common, especially among old people, whose blood naturally grows thin and pale because of the lack of the red corpuscles that give color and strength to youthful blood. Sallow complexions and rough, oily skins evidence some constitutional or blood trouble, which salves, lotions, powders nor any external treatment can cure. Diseases that originate in the blood, whether they manifest themselves as ulcers, tumors, itching eruptions, muscular or bone pains, require a tonic and blood purifier such as S. S. S., which not only antidotes and neutralizes blood poisons and humors, but possesses health-giving tonic properties that no other blood medicine does. It goes down to the very foundation of the disease and eliminates from the system everything of a poisonous character or that obstructs and clogs the circulation. It builds up and imparts new strength and vitality to the old innutritious blood, and when the arteries and veins are once more filled with new rich blood, the general health begins to improve, muscles grow stronger, and sores and eruptions of every kind disappear.

S. S. S. is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier, and the purest and most reliable in all blood diseases. It has been tested in thousands of cases during the past fifty years and is more popular today than ever. We will be glad to send you our book free, and if in need of medical advice write our physicians all about your case; this information will cost you nothing and comes from experienced and educated doctors. All correspondence is conducted in strictest confidence. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, ATLANTA, GA.

One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. WISDOM OF WILLIAM PENN.

Be rather bountiful than expensive.
Never marry but for love; but see that thou lov'st what is lovely.

He that has more knowledge than judgment, is made for another man's use more than his own.

The usefulest truths are plainest.
And while we keep them our differences cannot rise high.

Never give out while there is hope;
but hope not beyond reason, for that shows more desire than judgment.

There are some men like dictionaries;
to be looked into upon occasions, but have no connection, and are little entertaining.

If thou hast not conquered thyself in that which is thy own particular weakness, thou hast no title to virtue, though thou art free of other men's.

Do nothing improperly. Some are witty, kind, cold, angry, easy, stiff, jealous, careless, cautious, confident,
close, open, but all in the wrong place.

ALL IN THE ANIMAL KINGDOM.

In Nebraska nowadays the skins of superfluous dogs are tanned and made into gloves.

A black snake was killed in Maryland recently which had in its stomach a porcelain turkey nest egg, supposed to have been swallowed by the deluded snake 14 months ago.

Almost as soon as they are out of the shell quail seem to have the power of making themselves invisible at the wave of a wand. The ground may be as bare as a floor, but somehow they manage to vanish utterly from the eye.

An ostrich seldom jumps over any obstruction of some height, as a well or mound—perhaps fearing for its frail bones—the usual way of clearing the obstruction being to breast
the wall or mound, and then to roll over it somehow.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever, that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Crowning Virtue.

BELTON, Mo., July 27.
For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure.
My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it.
Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.

MRS. MINNIE LITTLE.

Wine of Cardui

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

Mile Posts in Best Life of State.

News and Observer.

We make no apologies for devoting most of the space of this paper one month every year to accounts of commencing. They are mile-posts in the best life and hope of the State.

Gattis-Kilgo Trial.

News and Observer.

It is said that the Gattis-Kilgo case will come up for trial at Granville Superior court in July, Judge Shaw presiding. It is also stated that Messrs. Frank I. Osborne, of Charlotte, and Clement Manly, of Winston, have been retained for Dr. Kilgo's side of the case. There is talk that an effort will be made to secure the removal of the case from Granville county.

Unwise Policy of Railroads.

Statesville Landmark.

It would seem, that viewed from the standpoint of ordinary common sense, it would be to the interest of the railroads to give notice in advance of the changing of schedules. Certainly the public has a right to such notice, as they are liable to be inconvenienced by not having it: and we are utterly unable to see any good reason for withholding such information.

It is passing strange that the railroad people cannot see that it is to their advantage to take the public more fully into their confidence about matters which concern their patrons. For instance, when accidents occur, or for any other reason trains are delayed, the railroad people are dumb, they will tell nothing. This causes irritation and prejudice against railroads when it could all be avoided by simply giving a statement of such facts as are in their possession.

Fatal Frolic With Baby.

Jersey City, N. J., June 1.—William Gallagher, a bartender, 28 years old, had no children but was very fond of the 15-months-old baby boy of his neighbor, William O'Keefe, in a flat house at Borrow and York streets. This morning Gallagher was enjoying a frolic with the gleeful child, tossing him high in the air and catching him. When near the elevator shaft, which is four feet square and near the floor, he reeled with the infant in his arms and both plunged down the shaft to death.

Dug Up Big Meteorite.

Lewisburg, Pa., June 1.—Nelson Davis, professor of organic science in Bucknell University, came into possession, today, of a meteorite which has excited a great deal of interest among the scientific men of this section. A few days ago a farmer residing a few miles from Lewisburg was excavating near a limestone quarry when his pick struck a hard substance four feet under ground. He unearthed his find and brought it to Professor Davis, who has pronounced it a meteorite.

It is bowl-shaped, being flat on one side where it had evidently come in contact with the limestone when it struck the ground. It weighs 70 pounds. The meteorite is supposed to have descended from the heavens in 1824, when a ball of fire was seen to descend from the sky in that vicinity. It will be placed on exhibition in the Bucknell University Museum.

Welcome by the King.

London, June 3.—The Daily Telegraph in the course of an editorial upon King Edward's reception of the visiting delegation from the New York chamber of commerce Saturday, says: "It stamped the royal seal upon a national welcome. There could have been no more fortunate suggestion at the outset of this remarkable visit, of the true spirit in which American business rivalry is regarded in Great Britain."

The paper advocates, as one of the best means of meeting this friendly rivalry, that British employers and workmen alike should visit the United States and observe for themselves American business methods, and it declares that "the fact of the two countries being so indisputable to each other, makes all plans of European industrial coalition against the United States an idle dream, so far as any British participation is concerned."

ADVERTISING COMMENT.

By THE HUSTLER.

If it is economy to curtail advertising in a dull season, it would be still more economical to close the store. Try either one, and you'll see who is ahead when you open up again.

So long as your store is open, advertise it, otherwise the man across the way, who keeps "everlastingly at it" will be in the lead when the busy season comes and then keep it.

The "Bee Hive" is a busy place, and the one in which Mr. R. G. Fortune, of this city, is the "King Bee" is no exception. In fact we doubt that others are quite so busy. Some think it is a little too late in the season to gather sweets from the fruit of advertising, but the industrious worker succeeds where others fail, hence the handsome announcement of seasonal goods, and busy scenes at the Bee Hive, by R. G. Fortune & Co. See their ad today.

The Ward Shoe Company are having a Shiny Shoe Sale. Everything shines in their store and will bear the searchlight of inspection. You'd better see what it means and this means now.

SAFE BLOWERS IN CHURCH

Sacred Vessels to the Value of $1,000 Taken—Alter Not Disturbed.

Worcester, Mass., May 30.—St. John's Catholic church was broken into last night by burglars, the safe containing the sacred vessels blown open, and vessels to the value of more than $1,000 were taken.

Black powder was used to force the safe, the cap of one of the hinges being first knocked off with a sledge to allow an aperture for the powder.

Although the parochial residence is close to the church, separated only by a passage-way of a few feet wide, none of the priests heard the explosion.

The altar of the church was not disturbed, which leads the police to believe that the work was that of Catholics, who were afraid to disturb the sacred precincts where the host reposes in a chalice of great value.

Bright Repartee.

New York Times.
Mrs. Isaac Bell, who died in Paris this past week, was a very remarkable woman. Beside being a very great beauty, she was extremely clever, and many witty speeches have been attributed to her. As a lady of the old school, which means everything which is seemly in manners, deportment and refinement, Mrs. Bell was frequently quoted as an example. In repartee, one story is told even now, in which she is said to have been the heroine. She disliked flattery or even compliments, and one evening at the opera, when it was in Astor place, one of the most noted of the young men of the day, who was renowned for his insincerity, was in her opera box. Gazing at her hands and arms, which were beautiful, he suddenly exclaimed, adapting Grey's Elegy a bit to the requirements of the occasion: Hands that the rod of empire might sway!

And Mrs. Bell, demurely looking up softly replied, completing the stanza, much to his discomfiture: Or waked to ecstasy the living lyre. But those were days in which people read their poets.

The gardener must mind his peas and cucumbers.

VETERANS RECEIVE CROSSES.

GUILFORD CAMP NO. 795 IS THEN REORGANIZED.

About Sixty Crosses are Bestowed—Others Will be Given in September—Daughters Serve Lunch—Col. J. T. Morehead Makes a Speech.

At the Academy of Music this morning about one hundred and fifty Confederate Veterans who met at the instance of the Guilford Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, to receive the cross of Honor. The meeting was called to order by Col. J. T. Morehead, who in behalf of the Daughters regretted that owing to the recent reunion in Memphis, and the consequent demand for the crosses, that only about sixty could be decorated today, but that all the others would receive them by September.

Col. Morehead then made a short speech to the veterans, in which he spoke feelingly of their valor and bravery, and of the noble Daughters who out of the love and devotion in their federate veterans met at the ins would decorate them with the Cross of Honor.

Mrs. J. S. Jones then read by request a beautiful poem, entitled "The Road to Immortality."

The names of the Veterans who were to receive the Cross were then read, the veterans came forward and the crosses were pinned on them by the ladies of Guilford Chapter.

At the conclusion of the presentation of the crosses of honor, Guilford Camp No. 975 was reorganized and the following officers were elected:

Commander—J. W. Scott.
First Assistant Commander—J. M. Burton.

Second Assistant Commander—J. M. Smith.

Third Assistant Commander—J. H. Rankin.

Chaplain—Dr. L. W. Crawford.

Adjutant—J. Sterling Jones.

Surgeon—Dr. J. G. Broadnax.

Assistant Surgeon—Dr. A. P. McDaniel.

Quartermaster—Silas C. Dodson.

Officer of the Day—C. Mebane.

Historian—J. E. Wharton.

Treasurer—G. H. McKinney.

Sergeant Major—W. D. Wharton.

Color Sergeant—Thomas J. Rhodes.

Color Guards—W. H. Lee and W. H. Pearce.

Commissary—R. H. Smith.

A number of new names were added to the roll, and it is the intention of the Camp that every man in Guilford county who volunteered and fought in the Civil War shall be enrolled upon the books of the Camp. The Camp was dismissed to meet again on the tenth of May, 1902.

After their adjournment, the ladies of the Guilford Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy, served the Veterans with lunch. Immediately after the lunch Photographer White took a picture of the Veterans and the Daughters in the grove in front of the Academy building.

The crosses are made of iron, and on the one side are the letters, U. D. C. to the U. C. V.

On the reverse side are the words: Southern Cross of Honor. Deo Vindice 1861-1865.

Road to Immortality.
(By John W. Faxon.)

Hail! brave Veterans—ensigns tattered,
Panoplied no more for war;

Heroes scar'd, and maim'd and battered,
Bow'd with age and weight with care;

Year by year,

Your roll's decreasing;
Silenced lips—

And heart-beats ceasing.
Gleams of battle—clear and rigid—

Plit before the soldier's mind:
Where death stalking—stark and rigid—

Seem'd to "leave all hope behind."
Iron hailstorms;

Bayonets flashing;
Troops now rushing;

Sabres clashing.
How these "comrades"—mingling—

bleeding
Speak of deeds—of bloody strife;

Tell of shrapnel—case-shot rending—
As they hurled breath from life;

Bomb-shells bursting;
Rockets flying;

Carnage heaping;
Brothers dying.

Yet, in saddest, darkest moments—
Whilst the death knell sounded forth;

Ties were form'd, which trouble for ments

Pledging friends, who'd proved their worth,

Whilst the drums
Kept solemn tapping,

To the soul's
Pure life blood, tapping.

Cleanse from Southern soil the blood-spots,
Stain'd by angered brother's arms;
Vell them 'neath the rarest flow'r
plots;

Peace's emblems—Memory's charms.
Monoliths will

Tell the story:
Manhood's valor;

Country's glory.
Forrest—brave, unflinching, daring,
Gave his State meed of fame;

Still, the painful truth is glaring,
No memorial bears his name;

Name so worthy;
Fame deserving;

Firm and faithful;
Never swerving

Breasts, for Southern woman baring,
Bore the brunt of four long years;

She, for heroes graves now caring,
Keeps them green with grateful tears

Tears of sorrow;
flowers of beauty;

Sacred proof
Of "well gone" duty.

Rear to sisters, wives and mothers,
Shaft of marble, pure and tall;

On it trace those deeds for brothers,
Living Veterans now recall;

Years may glide;
Time cannot sever,

Humane acts
They live forever.

Lovely woman took upon her
Noble hands, a duty fair;—

Gave to you the "Cross of Honor,"—
There's another "Cross" to bear:

Cross of Jesus!
Crown of glory!

Capture both,
Ye Veterans hoary.

When the last sad taps are sounded;
When the last sad "Taps" are sounded;

When the "Rebel Shout" is stay'd—

Heaven's the happy camp—unbounded,
Where God's orders are obey'd;

Where the Prince
Of Peace, benignly,

Lulls to rest
The soul divinely.

WOULD BE INFANTICIDE.

She is Captured by Constable Dave Scott at Proximity.

As told exclusively in Saturday's Telegram, the identity of the negro woman who abandoned her offspring in the woods near the Summit Avenue crossing of the Southern Railway, was known by the police. Late Saturday afternoon she was captured by Constable Dave Scott in the woods between Proximity Cotton Mills and the Revolution Mills. She was a cook for Mrs. Kellum, at Proximity, and was at work Saturday afternoon, when looking out doors she beheld Constable Scott approaching. She immediately took to her heels, going in the direction of Revolution Mills, with the constable and a crowd hot on her trail. When only a short distance from Proximity she was captured, and was brought by the officer to the city and lodged in the county jail.

GOOD ROADS MEETING TO-DAY.

ATTENDED BY A LARGE AND REPRESENTATIVE CROWD.

Speeches Made by Dr. McIver, Professors Joyner, Claxton, Holt, Messrs. Wharton, Lindley, Boren and Others—To Meet Again.

The Good Roads meeting was called to order at noon today in the county court house by President J. Van Lindley who explained the object of the meeting, namely, to devise ways and means to let the people of the county understand thoroughly the nature and details of the bill passed by the last Legislature, and on which the people will be called upon to vote at an election to be held on November 21st.

Prof. J. Y. Joyner was then called upon to make a speech on the subject and in the course of his remarks he said that there was scarcely any interest in any community that would not be benefited by the building of better roads.

Dr. McIver was called upon and said, "there is nothing that comes before the people of this section that is of more importance than this proposition now before the people of Guilford county, of the building of good roads."

In the course of his remarks Dr. McIver said that he believed that no State in the Union had the bright prospects before it that North Carolina had, with her large percentage of white people, and the small percentage of negroes, and with less than one per cent. of foreigners.

He spoke of the fact that when any body wanted to locate in North Carolina, the first place they come to, is Mecklenburg and Guilford counties, and the first question that is asked is, how far is it to the school house, and the question of good roads enters largely into the answering of that question. In conclusion he said: "I consider good roads and good schools as settling the destiny of any nation."

Prof. M. H. Holt was then called upon, and expressed himself as being heartily in favor of good roads, but thought that the roads in Oak Ridge township should receive some attention, and that it would be a difficult matter to get the people of that township to vote for the measure, unless they could see some direct result that would come from it. He also thought it a good idea to begin the construction of the macadam roads at the edge of the county, and work towards the center.

Prof. J. M. Bandy answered a portion of Prof. Holt's remarks relating to the commencing the building of the macadam roads at the edge of the county, showing the disadvantage of such beginning and showing that every where similar work had been done, the work has been commenced from the centers and worked out.

Prof. P. P. Claxton arose and told of the condition of roads in the community in which he spent his boyhood, telling of the macadamized turnpike over which the farmers were glad to travel at a cost of twenty-five cents, and of the amount of freight that could be hauled over the turnpike above that that could be handled over the dirt roads. He also spoke of the condition of the roads in European countries, showing the improvement of the roads there over those of this country.

He was followed by Messrs. John A. Young, J. L. King, and W. D. Wharton, who made talks on the same subject. Mr. J. A. Rankin made an excellent talk on the advantage of the macadam road that ran from the city to his plantation northeast of the city.

He was followed in turn by Messrs. J. S. Ragsdale, of Jamestown, W. C. Boren, and E. P. Wharton, who each made interesting and instructive speeches.

Much interest was manifested by those in attendance. The crowd was the largest one that has ever gathered together on the subject of good roads in this county.

The meeting adjourned to meet again at the call of the president.

GAVE HIMSELF AWAY.

George H. Dunn, Held in Baltimore for a Murder in Hartford in 1898, Dies Suddenly.

Baltimore, May 31.—Because he talked in his sleep George H. Dunn, alias William Stevens, alias "Jack" Williams, colored, aged 25 was taken to the Eastern police station today charged with murder and arson. He was wanted at Hartford, Conn., for the murder on March 18, 1898, of Victoria Martin, colored, his common law wife. He had been indicted by the Hartford Grand Jury on the charge of murder and arson.

Dunn had been living with the woman for about two years, and on the night of March 18, 1898, they quarrelled, when, it is alleged, Dunn picked up a lighted lamp and hurled it at her. The lamp exploded and the house with the woman in it was consumed. Dunn made his escape. He came to this city and has since been traveling under assumed names.

Dunn and John Stewart became engaged in a quarrel on Saturday night, in which Dunn was cut in the breast. Sergeant Day heard of the affair today and placed both men under arrest. Then another negro told the sergeant of what he had heard Dunn, then known as Williams, say in his sleep. The informer said Dunn raved over the burning of the house and the woman.

After the cutting case was disposed of and Stewart committed for court Sergt. Day made the charge of murder and arson against Dunn. He was taken completely by surprise, but after being questioned by Judge Ross and Lieut. Green he related all the circumstances connected with the affair but said that it was accidental. He said that in the quarrel he brushed against the lamp, turning it over. Justice Ross held him for a further hearing.

Dunn's wounds appeared superficial and he was taken to the University Hospital, where they were dressed. Subsequently he was taken to jail. He did not appear to be suffering much, but late this afternoon complained of a pain over his heart. A physician was called, but before he could make an examination the negro dropped dead. The knife blade entered immediately over the heart and the murderer is believed to have bled to death internally.

Modish Mention.

Much green foliage is a feature of the smartest hats.

Complexion veils take precedence of all others in milady's fancy at the present moment.

Wide sashes of the same material are latest notion shown on the ready-made wash suit.

Linens in the natural color are used to develop one of the smartest and most favored shirt-waists of the season.

Black figures on a white ground, the height of vogue just now, is a new and tasteful fad, eagerly welcomed by stylishly-gowned women.

Shantungs and pongee are two very much sought fabrics.

The newest gowns show a marked disposition to cling to elaborate blouse effects rather than bolero or separate waists.

Sleeves vary much in cut, but for the most part are tight to the elbow, where they develop balloon tendencies, and extend to the wrist in innumerable varieties of shapes.

Two-clasp Milanese suede in French gray, black and white are very correct gloves for present wearing.

It is whispered that the extremely high-hand turned-oven linen collar is to have a fall from its high estate and be reduced at least an inch or inch and a half in height, but still to remain very close in front, with sharp points.

Ribbed leather and leather laid fancies in belts for shirt-waist accompaniment.

Startlingly novel are the new feminine golf shoes, with dark leather vamps and bright red or green cloth uppers. With a green or scarlet coat they are quite effective.

CHINESE IN PHILIPPINES.

Why Their Wholesale Immigration to the Islands Should Be Encouraged.

"The Chinese immigration question is one of the most serious with which congress will have to deal in determining the future of the Philippines," said Henry Clay Thacker, of California. Mr. Thacker recently returned from Manila, where he went to study conditions as the representative of a number of Pacific coast capitalists who are negotiating for a large tract of land in Luzon, which they expect to develop, says the Washington Post. "Everyone is familiar, of course with the controversy as to whether Chinese can be admitted to the Philippines and yet kept out of the United States, and we people on the Pacific coast are keenly alive to the danger that threatens this country should the door be thrown open to Chinese immigration by way of the Philippines. But, as one who is interested in the development of our new island possessions in the Pacific, I am much in favor of admitting as many Chinese there as care to or can be induced to go.

"Though the Spanish 'conquered' the islands some 300 years ago, the Philippines are, to all intents and purposes, a new country, and no new country can be developed without labor. Work the Filipinos will not. They would rather beg or steal five cents a day than earn a dollar by labor. Some one other than the Filipino, therefore, must do the work that is to be done. Americans, or white men from other countries, could never be persuaded to go there in any considerable numbers, so it would seem that practically the only hope of the islands lies in the Chinese. If congress can devise a way to suspend the Chinese exclusion act with reference to the Philippines and yet keep the bars up so far as the rest of the country is concerned, it will confer upon the Philippine islands the greatest boon that could befall them."

AMERICAN WEDS COUNTESS.

Colonel John M. Read's Bride Was Miss, Alix De Foras, Daughter of Count De Foras.

Announcement was made at Albany, N. Y., the other day of the marriage of Col. John Meredith Read to Countess Alix De Foras. Miss De Foras is the daughter of Count Amédée De Foras of the Castle of Thuyset, in Savoy, France. Count De Foras was for many years the grand marshal of the court of Bulgaria and a great political power in that country. He resigned the position when the child of the prince was forced to become a member of the Greek church, as he represented the Catholic party. He afterward retired to the castle of Thuyset, where he devoted himself to his books until his death.

Col. Read is the son of Gen. John Meredith Read, adjutant general at the outbreak of the civil war, consul general of this country to France during the Franco-German war and commune and acting consul general for Germany; then minister to Greece, in which post he distinguished himself. His grandfather, John Meredith Read, LL. D., was chief justice and one of the most distinguished lawyer-jurists of Pennsylvania.

TOO TALL FOR SHIP'S BERTH.

United States Army Officer Astonishes the Captain of an Ocean Steamer.

The tallest passenger that ever sailed on the Red D liner Philadelphia arrived in New York from San Juan, Porto Rico, the other day. There were 33 cabin passengers aboard, but none attracted as much attention as Capt. John S. Battle, U. S. A., until recently a lieutenant in the Eleventh infantry. The young man's unusual height, broad shoulders and giant frame make him a tower of strength.

"Never sailed with such another," said Capt. Chambers, of the Philadelphia. "He was the tallest man I ever clapped eyes on. He was too long for the space between decks."

"Capt. Battle had to stoop as he walked the promenade deck. The railings were not high enough to prevent the captain's head from colliding with frames and canvas; fact, Capt. Battle is more than seven feet tall. Had to procure special permission from the war department when he received his appointment to the military academy. He was bigger than the regulation size."

"Didn't know what to do about a bunk for the captain. Thought at first he was a lighthouse. He came aboard at San Juan, and asked me if I had a berth long enough. Told him that I once had a man almost as long as he, and that two berths had been thrown into one, making a continuous bed about eight feet long."

"Capt. Battle went below with me and looked at the double berth. Said he'd prefer to sleep on deck. So he had to take an ordinary berth, which was about three feet too short. For five nights the captain had to sleep with his legs hanging over the foot of the berth and curled around a stanchion."

ODD CLAUSE IN A BEQUEST.

Rich Bostonian Excludes Negroes and Catholics from a Legacy.

In the will of David W. Hitchcock, a rich Bostonian, filed the other day, appears the following clause bearing upon a contingent bequest made to Wellesley female seminary to establish scholarships for worthy young women: "I exclude Roman Catholics and colored persons because I feel that the introduction into the said seminary of pupils who differ essentially in race and religion from the others may prevent the best interests thereof. Such girls to be selected as the beneficiaries of this fund by the officers of said seminary as would be unable to afford the expense of an education at said institution without such assistance, and I request said officers to limit the benefit of such assistance to such girls as appear to them to be bright and intelligent and likely to profit thereby."

If the trustees of the seminary refuse to accept the bequest the testator directs that the fund be given to the Museum of Fine Arts.

Greece only cultivates two out of 10,000,000 acres of land; England 48 out of every 78.

Twenty-three years is the average of a British sovereign's reign, against 26 in Spain and 16 in Russia.

While Spain held Cuba and Porto Rico coffee raising was a prohibited industry. Now that these islands have passed from her she is encouraging coffee-tree planting at home.

Could Not Speak

until he had cured himself of an impediment in his speech.

The finest flight of oratory may sound like the mumblings of an insane man, without a clear, distinct and forcible delivery.

So your printed message, however important, vital and interesting it may be, can suffer so from slipshod, careless, blotchy printing that it will fail to deliver its message.

Bad printing is to your advertising what defective, indistinct enunciation is to an orator. You owe it to yourself to say the best that you have, and to say it the best that you can.

Our printing is appropriate to every purpose because there is no sort of printing which should not be done as well as it can be done.

Estimates of all kinds cheerfully and promptly given.
